Before the Unit

You are about to start a business. Identify a good or service made by your business. Don't forget to give your business a name. What type of good or service does your business provide? Where do you get the resources needed to make your good or service? How do you get your service or good to the customer?